The Richardson Independent School District will actively work to eliminate systems and practices that perpetuate historical inequities and present disparities that could negatively affect the ability of students, families, and staff to participate in diverse and inclusive learning and working environments. The Board believes that embracing individual human diversity, developing a capacity for the collective pursuit of cultural competence, and committing to day-to-day equity and inclusion will enable the District to fulfill its mission. The District will provide opportunities for ALL to connect, learn, grow and succeed through relevant and personalized learning experiences that are distinguished by a welcoming and accepting climate, a safe, innovative, and adaptive environment, and a supportive, collaborative, and invested culture among students, staff, families, and community.

As a community of learners committed to equity and the success of all, the District understands that our students, staff, and stakeholders bring their personal backgrounds into our schools, and each of them reasonably expects to have a nurturing and barrier-free learning environment that counteracts the contemporary and historical effects of bias, prejudice, and unlawful discrimination. RISD will not predicate or determine success on the basis of race, ethnicity, economic status, mobility, language, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, physical, mental, or emotional disabilities, religion, or any other identity marker. To implement these commitments, the District shall:

1. Continue to comply with all Board policies and guidelines expressing the District’s commitment to equal opportunity and nondiscrimination and harassment.
2. Foster recognition of and respect for basic human rights, fundamental freedoms, and equitable opportunities and outcomes for all through the District’s policies, programs, and activities. To support this recognition and respect, the District has established the following Guiding Principles and Practices:
   A. The District has established and will maintain the department of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion to serve as a resource to provide an equity lens for District policies, programs, and practices; facilitate implementation of the equity, diversity, and inclusion components of the District’s Strategic Action Plan; create opportunities to identify and eliminate any inequitable practices within the District, and work to identify and effectively address internal and external inequities that create barriers to success and achievement for all student groups.
   B. The District will acknowledge, affirm, and celebrate differences to create a sense of belonging by providing students, staff, and families with authentic and relevant opportunities to learn about diverse histories, cultures, and perspectives.
   C. The District will follow strategies to ensure students, families, and staff see themselves represented in the curriculum, programs, culture, and staff of the school, including:
      i. The District will intentionally recruit, hire, and retain qualified and/or experienced staff who reflect student demographics and the community to support a racially diverse and culturally responsive workforce that is present in all schools and at all organizational levels.
      ii. Each school will promote a culture where students, families, community members, and employees feel welcomed, valued, safe, supported, and where all can perform their personal best without personal compromise.
      iii. The District will choose and use learning materials that reflect the diversity of students and staff and which foster the understanding and appreciation of culture, class, language, ethnicity, and other differences that exist in our student body and staff. These learning materials also will include social emotional learning resources for all grade levels. Social and emotional resources will support students and staff in attainment of knowledge, attitudes, and skills necessary to understand and manage emotions, set positive goals, feel and show empathy for others, make responsible decisions, and maintain positive relationships.
